

Hospitality House Young Professionals (HHYP)

noun

1. A group of peers in their 20s or 30s dedicated to growing HHOC by volunteering their time through service and fundraising
2. Your new favorite networking community

Mission

Hospitality House Young Professionals seek to innovate programs that support and expand the notion of access to world-class medical care.

Our Goals

Activate the next generation of emerging leaders

Elevate the voices, ideas, and experiences of young professionals

Bring innovative ideas to the sector and inspire modern thinking

Volunteering

- Cooking for guests
- Seasonal decorating
- House projects
- Donor stewardship

Social Events

- Group classes
- Happy hours
- Sporting events
- Trivia/game nights

Opportunities

- Networking with other young professionals and HHOC Board of Directors
- Roles in leadership, planning, fundraising, and more

It has been such a fun and rewarding way to give back to my community as well as meet new people.
