About HHOC

Hospitality House of Charlotte has carried out its mission since the doors first opened in 1985, offering affordable lodging within Charlotte's medical community. By providing lodging at minimal rates, HHOC makes it possible for more patients to access vital medical care. When families are experiencing a medical crisis, the House provides more than just a temporary place to stay, it provides access to lifesaving healthcare, a community of support, and ultimately better health outcomes.

Volunteering plays a large part in creating a safe and welcoming environment for all of HHOC's guests. From cooking hearty and delicious meals to keeping fresh linens on every bed, volunteerism is essential in ensuring that the House runs smoothly. Hospitality House would not be able to serve patients, families, and caregivers if not for the volunteers who dedicate their time to HHOC.

Meals that Heal

Help provide a delicious meal for HHOC guests through the Meals that Heal program. Volunteers can sign up to cook onsite or drop off 25-30 individually packaged meal portions for guests. Volunteers are responsible for choosing a meal and providing all the ingredients needed. This activity is great for smaller groups of between three and ten volunteers.

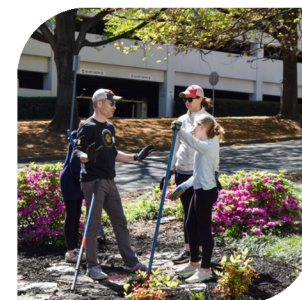

Clean Linen Crew

The Clean Linen Crew ensures that each bed is freshly made for guests upon arrival. This activity consists of folding and organizing clean linens for HHOC's housekeeping staff, perfect for individuals or a small group of two to five volunteers.

Landscaping Helpers

In the spring, summer, and fall seasons, the Landscaping Helpers opportunity is perfect for those looking to get outside. This activity consists of pulling weeds, trimming hedges, and overall keeping the House's yard looking fresh. This activity is great for groups of all size ranging from smaller groups of five up to large groups of 20 volunteers.

Offsite Opportunities

Offsite volunteer opportunities give volunteers the flexibility to make an impact on their own schedule. Whether at home or with a group at your office, offsite opportunities are a great way to give back to the guests of HHOC. Offsite opportunities can be customized to your needs. Visit our website or reach out to the team to learn more about offsite opportunities.
